

◆New Member Introduction and "New Game Production Takeover" Notice◆

As an official member, we've decided to induct Yuushakandenchi, who's currently in charge of drawing our circle's work, "Chris Survival."

In the future, he'll be playing an active role as a core member of game production in our circle, Poison, so please give him your utmost support.

◆Regarding Production Takeover for "The Hero Never Seen Again"◆

"The Hero Never Seen Again," solely produced by Yuushakandenchi, from here on out, will proceed in production with Yuushakandenchi leading and Poison in a supporting position, and will be released as Poison's new RPG.

In addition, information on game content will be sequentially released from February.

Regarding "The Hero Never Seen Again," since Yuushakandenchi will be the main producer, they will be in charge of writing information articles on Ci-en in the future. As a rule while producing this game, Yuki and Yuushakandenchi will both focus on making what they enjoy making, and will help each other out on their weaker points, in order to continue making even higher-quality products.
