

Question and Answer Corner for Products/Circle

Poi:

Today, I'll be answering all of the questions that have been asked on Ci-en in the poi-st.

Diana:

It's been a while since we posted in this format.

Aster:

And what's more, this slime is still alive!

Koyori:

It really survived...

Poi:

Poi is forever immortal-poi!

Poi:

With that, I'll have the characters from their respective works read the questions, and I'll answer them on behalf of the creator-poi. Ask me anything-poi!

Koyori:

So, as it's pretty hard to make these short skits, first up to bat, we'll start with questions regarding "Divine Miko Koyori."

Koyori:

Q1: Will Poi ever come back?

Poi:

He's back! BACK!! BACK!!!

Poi is back, right here-poi!

Koyori:

Um, but this isn't related to "Divine Miko Koyori" at all...

Poi:

There was only 1 unanswered question related to "Divine Miko Koyori"-poi. Therefore, I'm gonna leave the miscellaneous questions to you-poi.

Koyori:

So, will this format be continued in the future?

Poi:

It will be limited to the question and answer corner, like this.

When questions about products or the circle add up,

I'll whimsically ap-poi-r to answer them.

Koyori:

Questions have been taken from the comment section on Ci-en, and from Marshmallow on Twitter,

so feel free to ask anything if you have any concerns.

Koyori:

Q2: Does Koyori have a twin tail hairstyle, or something like that?

Poi:

We sometimes poi-st seasonal illustrations, and it might be good to try various hairstyle arrangements for those-poi.

I can't poi-romise anything, but I'll consider it poi-sitively.

Koyori:

Speaking of that, a few years ago, I had twin tails for something.

I'd like to try various hairstyles.

Koyori:

With that, I'm done with answering questions.

Next will be Diana, please~.

Diana:

Got it!

Next, I'll be reading out questions related to "Imperial Knights."

Diana:

Q1: Can you beat the game as a virgin?

W-what a question, right off the bat...

Poi:

The concept of virginity is in "erotic status,"

"differences in blood from deflowering," and simple text differences in erotic event scenes registered in the gallery-poi.

Poi:

In addition, virginity won't be lost from taking erotic attacks in battle-poi.

Diana:

Q2: Do you have any plans to release a smartphone version?

Poi:

Both the smartphone version and the English/Chinese translated versions depend on whether the outsourced contractor wants to handle them or not.

Poi:

For "Imperial Knights" and "The Hero" at least, we can probably release a smartphone version and English/Chinese version... I think-poi.

Diana:

Q3: Will it be released this year?

Poi:

Im-poi-ssible! I'll poi-vide a reason for that later!

Diana:

Q4: Imperial Knights isn't a short game, right?

Poi:

We still haven't measured the play time yet, so we don't know-poi.

Poi-haps the total play time will be over 10 hours.

Diana:

Q5: Will there be erotic scenes featuring Lysithea?

Poi:

Of course-poi!

But, including all sub-heroines, it's about 40 images of out of 160, 1/4 that of Diana-poi.

Poi:

Since this poi-duction is planned for released at the end of 2023, if any more images are added, Mr. Fukayama will die from overwork-poi.

Diana:

Q6: Is there a pregnancy system in "Imperial Knights?"

Poi:

There isn't-poi.

Diana:

That's all for "Imperial Knights."

You're up next, Aster, please.

Aster:

Alright, I'm gonna ask you all the questions that everyone wants to know, so prepare yourself and answer well~.

Aster:

Q1: When's the release date?

Poi:

At this stage, it will be released somewhere by the end of the year-poi.

There are more than 200 CG images in "The Hero," so we're currently making it while vomiting up blood.

Aster:

Q2: How much will outfits and hairstyles be reflected?

Poi:

Once you get a new hairstyle or outfit, the player can freely choose between them, so I'd like you to play using your favorites-poi.

Poi:

By the way, they will be reflected not only in standing images and the status screen, but also in erotic scenes!

Aster:

Q3: If you get pregnant, will the standing images change?

Um... we won't get p-pregnant or anything... right?

Poi:

Only the erotic status image will change-poi.
Conversation parts, standing images, etc., won't change.

Aster:

Q4: Can you choose whether Ima wears glasses or not?

Poi:

As of now, that function doesn't exist-poi.

We could do that if we wanted, but that depends on the production schedule, so poi-lease don't expect its implementation.

Aster:

I-, iiii-, is there any fucking with different species?

Poi:

Of course there is-poi.

The defeat events in "The Hero" are quite rapey, and the events in town have strong prostitution vibes-poi.

Aster:

Whew... those were some terrifying questions and answers, but with that, the questions for "The Hero" have finished.

Poi:

Good work, everyone-poi!

This concludes this question corner-poi.

Poi:

When we feel like it, we'll do it again-poi.
