

New RPG "Imperial Knights" Underwear Feature

We've lined up the underwear of the female characters who appear in "Imperial Knights."

Diana

The heroine Diana is set as the basic image for everything, so the color of her underwear is orthodox white.

In addition, since Diana has set off on an adventure from the life of a sheltered girl, she has a personality with a "pure" image that doesn't know depravity, so the color is white to symbolize innocence as well.

Tia

Tia's underwear is black, in contrast to Diana's.

In the case of Tia, you can always see her bottom, 'but more than being underwear, these are definitely more like inner pants or bloomers.....

Now, I wonder what the truth is (´・ω・`)

Lysithea

Lysithea's underwear is white, like Diana's.

It was made white to match the image of a clergywoman.

While Diana wears plain underwear that emphasizes mobility as an adventurer, Lysithea's underwear can be seen as a little fashionable, having a pattern and lace.

Leah

Leah, like Lysithea, also has a sacred profession, so her underwear is based white.

The design is a little similar to Lysithea's underwear, but as Lysithea had taken care of Leah's personal belongings, perhaps it's underwear that Lysithea chose for her.

Tania

Tania is an assassin, so her underwear is a sporty type that emphasizes ease of movement.

Perhaps she is not conscious of looking for design in her underwear, or showing it to others, but because of her nice body, it seems that even sporty types, who are only conscious of functionality, will attract lecherous men (°▽°)

Pan

Pan is a surprisingly busty fighter.

While she is good at hand-to-hand combat, she wears cute underwear.

Pan also has the face of a thief, so this underwear may not have been chosen by her, but taken from the cargo of some unscrupulous noblewoman.

Ariel

Ariel is an elf who lives in a secluded forest, but she wears very erotic underwear.

That's why elven slaves can sell for a high price!

Eris

The lady Eris is wearing underwear with a surprisingly simple design.
However, if you look closely, it's a g-string, a g-string.

Huh, her breasts are kinda small... (WHAP! BAM! SLAP SLAP! *Beating sounds

The design of the underwear will also be reflected in the event illustrations of each character.

By the way, Diana has many part-time events where she cosplays in something other than her regular equipment, so we plan to have her wear underwear with different designs at those times (°▽°)
